A Fresh Perspective

The way we work has changed, our offices and careers have evolved beyond the nine to five and become more organic and fluid.

As a result, our relationships, spaces, and work have become increasingly intertwined.

At Flexsteel Commercial Office, we're rethinking workplace design with a portfolio of proven products by DMI, strengthened with the Flexsteel brand.

A close-up photograph of a light blue desk edge and a silver metal chair leg. The desk is in the foreground, and the chair leg is in the background, both slightly out of focus. The background is a warm, brownish-orange color.

Why Partner with Flexsteel

- We design for the needs of today's rapidly changing workplace.
- A broad portfolio featuring classics by DMI, strengthened with the Flexsteel brand.
- Traditional to contemporary case goods options and everything in between.
- Full line of semi-custom and made-to-order soft seating.
- In-stock seating options for executive, task, guest, and lobby/lounge seating.
